

WORKSHOP + SEMINAR DETAILS

SUMMARY:

Eastern Zonal Cultural Center (EZCC), Kolkata, presents 'Culture-scape', a workshop and seminar on cultural documentaries – their technique and aesthetics, from 19th to 26th JULY, 2015.

The workshop and seminar will concentrate on guiding participants through the entire process of documentary film-making, particularly the production of cultural documentaries. It will shed light on the present situation and relevance of cultural documentaries, their importance, their necessity and the technical journey of producing them.

Guiding participants in this week-long workshop cum seminar will be eminent Indian personalities and professionals from this field – both technical and academic – such as Mr. R.R. Singh –veteran cinematographer from Mumbai; Mr. Ashok Vishwanathan – eminent film maker; and more such renowned professionals.

Participants will get to interact with these professionals on various aspects of film-making - ranging from cinematography and lighting to script-writing; from editing to sound recording and design; from the research process to the need and relevance of cultural documentaries. Along with this, various important documentaries will also be screened every day at the workshop.

This promises to be an enriching experience for participants.
